

Payment methods

You can find the menu item under Settings/Programme settings/Cash register payment methods. There you can store the various payment methods that are used. These can then be selected in the checkout during the payment process.

Payment method		into cash book
cash	Cash	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
chec	Check	<input type="checkbox"/>
debi	Debit card	<input type="checkbox"/>
		<input type="checkbox"/>

The tick in the cashbook means that the amounts of this payment type are added together in the cash book and are managed as cash book balance. Normally, only the cash receipts are taken into account in a cash book and match the respective cash balance in the cash balance sheet. However, it can be decided in the accounting department that the other payment types should also be included in the balance. However, it must be noted that the beginning-of-day balance may then not match the cash balance.

The check mark is set for cash in the cash book

You can see that only the cash balance is added up in the cash book and the cash balance is shown at the bottom. You can also recognise the credit card deposit (here, too, everything posted via the credit card payment method is added up), but the cash balance for the cash register has not been increased.
