

Language

The additional languages package is a paid PC CADDIE module, only activated when this is needed. You can access this option under Setup/Language:

Here you can choose the language for your PC CADDIE installation.

Almost all the features are available in English and French.

Language selections for reading aloud during tournaments can be found under the other functions of the result input: Language for loud reading.