Remote control carts

This module enables you to unlock your carts using the PC CADDIE checkout or via automated approval. It records parameters such as run-times and charging voltage, thus allowing PC CADDIE to automatically find the perfect cart for your customers.

You can find the information here.